

DECREE OF EXTINGUISHIVE UNION
REGARDING THE MERGING OF HOLY ROSARY PARISH IN TACOMA INTO
ST. ANN PARISH IN TACOMA

To Our Brothers and Sisters of the Archdiocese of Seattle

Holy Rosary Parish located in Tacoma was established in 1891 to provide for the needs of the primarily German community in the area. Over time, with the addition of other parishes nearby, the demographics of Holy Rosary Parish have changed with the shifting socio-economic conditions in the area. This has led to a loss of families and a steady decline in the sacramental life of the parish. In addition, the parish has been unable to meet its financial obligations for the last seven years.

In 2015, the Pierce Deanery began a planning process, mindful of Pope Francis' call to ensure that parish structures are oriented toward mission and "capable of transforming everything, so that the Church's customs, ways of doing things, times and schedules, language and structures can be suitably channelled for the evangelisation of today's world rather than for her self-preservation." (Evangelii gaudium, 27) There were serious concerns about the viability of Holy Rosary Parish even before the safety of the church building became an issue due to the issues set forth above.

Significant efforts to retain Holy Rosary Parish and the historical church building have been encouraged over several years. Parishioners were asked to engage more fully in missionary discipleship and support the ongoing parish operations financially and spiritually. These efforts have not been fruitful.

Deferred maintenance on the church led to specific, urgent safety concerns and, in October 2018, worship services were moved to the school auditorium out of concern for safety while an assessment of the church building was made. It was estimated that the cost of full repair would exceed $17 million and the minimum amount to safely reopen the church for access would be over $2 million. A professional assessment estimated that the parish community's maximum fundraising capability would generate approximately $600,000.

A parish-wide meeting was held on May 29, 2019 to discuss these challenges. The Parish Pastoral Council met several times, as did the Parish Finance Council, during 2019 and 2020 to review and discuss these same difficulties. The Finance Council met for a final time on July 23, 2020 and made its final recommendation, which was to suppress the parish. The Pastoral Council was also heard and consulted in this process.

In September 2020, the parish school was relocated to nearby St. Martin of Tours Parish in Fife. That same month, sacramental and pastoral ministry ceased at the parish. The Catholic families remaining at Holy Rosary Parish were able to join neighboring parishes since there are six parishes within close distance of one another in Tacoma.

Therefore,

Having considered the law and the facts;

And having heard, in accordance with canon 50, all those whose rights might be injured, including a meeting with the Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Council on October 3, 2019;

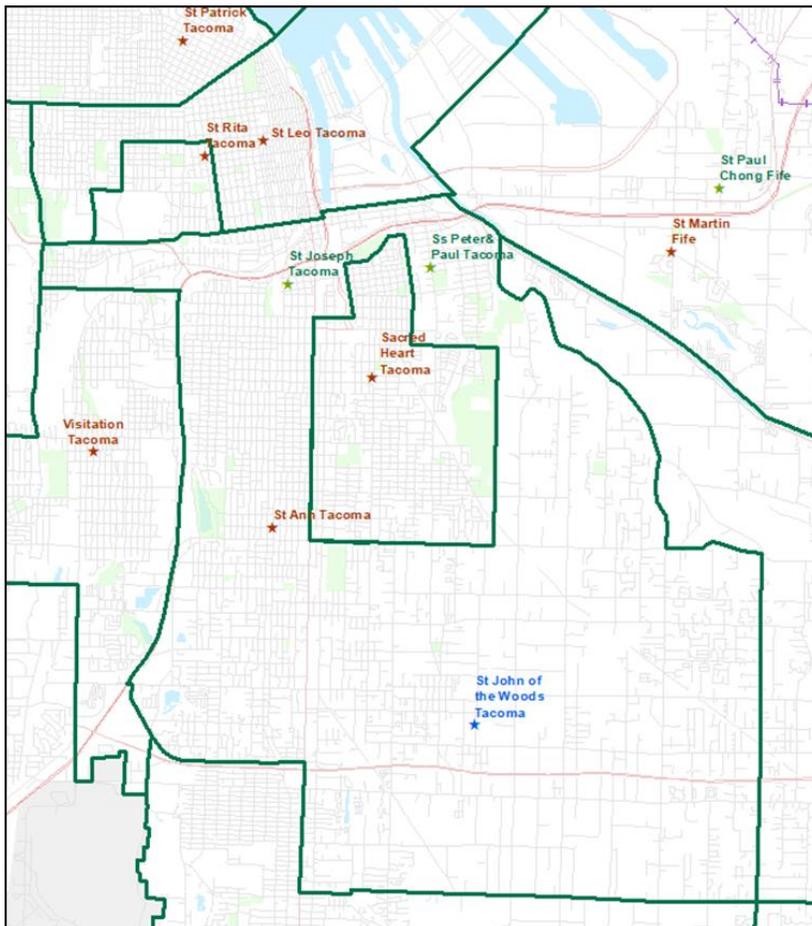

And having heard the Presbyteral Council, in accordance with canon 515 §2 on May 20, 2021;

And having determined the good of souls requires it;

I have deemed it necessary and proper that Holy Rosary Parish in Tacoma, be amalgamated and extintively merged with St. Ann Parish, Tacoma and that the boundaries of St. Ann Parish include the geographical boundaries of Holy Rosary Parish.
