At Home with Faith

Using the At Home with Faith content for parish communications and ministry needs

At Home with Faith is a free weekly resource created by the Archdiocese of Seattle Office of Marriage and Family Life.

It was created to help families who wish to study and reflect on the weekly scripture readings together, but it can also be used as a resource for parish ministry and catechesis.

Here are some ways that you can use the At Home with Faith content to support your communications and ministry needs:

Copy the reflection on the front page and use it for your bulletin or newsletter.

Use the talking points in the Talk section for your weekly scripture study groups, RCIA discussion, faith formation, and more.

Use excerpts from At Home with Faith as captions for your social media posts.
