

CULTURE AND DISCERNMENT

Panel, reflection, and conversation
Integrating culture and discerning religious life

Saturday, Nov. 11, 2023
10-12pm ET on Zoom

Open to single,
Catholic women,
aged 18-45, curious
about or discerning apostolic religious life.

RSVP here
for Zoom link
by Nov. 6

FEATURING

Jessica Vitente, SP

Chero Chuma,
CSJP

Katty Huanuco, CCVI

Siobhan Burroughs,
OP

A space to explore vocation in community

CULTURE AND DISCERNMENT MEET THE PANELISTS

JESSICA VITENTE, SP

Jessica Vitente, SP, belongs to the Sisters of Providence Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana. She has been a member of the congregation since 2018.

Jessica's varied ministries include: teaching ESL to men in jail; campus ministry; co-chairing the diversity direction committee; and currently working toward her MA in Pastoral Counseling at LUC.

Sisters of Providence
OF SAINT MARY-OF-THE-WOODS
Breaking boundaries, creating hope.®

CULTURE AND DISCERNMENT MEET THE PANELISTS

KATTY HUANUCO, CCVI

Katty Huanuco, CCVI, is a Sister of Charity of the Incarnate Word-San Antonio who lives in a multicultural and intergenerational community in St. Louis, Missouri. She is a Ph.D. student in public and social policy with an emphasis on urban and community development. Katty is committed to actively learning how to better welcome, promote, integrate and celebrate the diversity in our common home. She treasures ministering in diverse settings, so she believes communicating effectively in cross-cultural environments is essential to her ongoing learning process.

SISTERS OF CHARITY OF THE INCARNATE WORD
SAN ANTONIO

CULTURE AND DISCERNMENT MEET THE PANELISTS

DR. CHERO CHUMA, CSJP

Dr. Chero Chuma, CSJP, is a Sister of St. Joseph of Peace and serves as the director of Vocations in the U.S. She is also an on-call psychiatric practitioner at the Crisis Solutions Center in Seattle. She holds a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree from the University of Washington and a dual bachelor's degree in nursing and theology and religious studies from Seattle University.

CULTURE AND DISCERNMENT MEET THE PANELISTS

SIOBHAN BURROUGHS, OP

Siobhan Burroughs, OP, is a temporary professed sister with the Dominican Sisters of Sinsinawa. She is from Trinidad and Tobago and currently lives and ministers there as a clinical psychologist. Sister Siobhan is passionate about empowering persons at different stages of life. She is also an assistant lecturer at the Seminary of St. John Vianney and the Ugandan Martyrs. Belonging to a multi-cultural, multi-ethnic, multi-religious society, Siobhan appreciates and celebrates the different ways in which all of creation reflects the beauty of God.

