*These are the observed holidays by the Chancery that may be helpful for establishing parish and/or school holidays. Chancery full time employees receive 15 holidays. Each location whether a parish or school can be different.

The pastor establishes the number of recognized holidays for their parish. Parish full time employees receive 13 holidays that may or may not be listed above. Please review policies to ensure that they are being consistently applied.

The pastor and principal establish the number of recognized holidays for their school. Every school differs in the number of holidays that they grant their employees. The number is usually less than the parish and Chancery, however there are longer periods of breaks over summer, Christmas and Easter. For more information regarding holidays for the schools please consult your school policies and the OCS policy manual to ensure that they are consistently being applied.
