

Breakout 1: Sessions and Speakers (Morning)

Silent Adoration: (AM ONLY) Ideal for those who would like quiet prayer time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. This is a good opportunity to prepare for Reconciliation, which is offered between noon and 2pm.

Stump a Priest: (AM ONLY) Q&A with a panel of priests – students will have the opportunity to submit questions in advance. (Priest Panel: Fr. Maximiliano Muñoz, Fr. Justin Ryan, Fr. Kyle Rink, Fr. Chad Hill, Fr. Sylvester Chanda / Moderated by Kimberly Abadir)

Why Only Seven? (AM ONLY) How Christians Understand the Deadly Sins: Join Benedictine Father Peter Tynan in this exploration of the Seven Deadly Sins. Discover how these particular sins stand in the way of living our fullest life in Christ. (Fr. Peter Tynan, OSB)

Growing Up Between Cultures: During this session, Fatima shares her experience as a Mexican immigrant growing up in the United States and how her faith journey helped her find her own identity in Christ. She explores the beauty and challenge of growing up in between cultures, how she found comfort and a home away from home in her faith community and by trusting God's plan for her life. (Fatima Maldonado)

In The Beginning: This session explores our origins and the meaning of human sexuality through Genesis with the Theology of the Body. (Valene Ramseyer)

Living our Identity in the Beatitudes: a discussion and reflection on incorporating the Beatitudes within our identity. (Sheryl Blessing with Seed Students and Young Adult Leaders)

Participants of Divine Life: St. Athanasius wrote that "God became man, so that man might become like God". In this workshop, participants will explore how the Old Testament foreshadows, and Christ's Incarnation reveals, the dignity of the human person and God's ultimate purpose for each one of us. (Sam Carlson)

Prayerful Campus Walk: Experience a peaceful guided journey through the campus of Saint Martin, contemplating the joyful and sorrowful mysteries of life. (Michele Heitzmann)

Breakout For Juniors and Seniors (11:00am)

Saint Martin Admissions: Discover what it means to become a Saint and learn all about the college admissions process! Join this exciting session with a member from the Saint Martin admissions team, where you'll explore the vibrant campus life, diverse academic programs, and the financial support available. Plus, find out how Saint Martin's University fosters a welcoming community built on connection, support, and growth. As a bonus, all attendees will receive a $1,000 Campus Visit Award toward their first year if you're accepted and enroll at Saint Martin's! (Saint Martin's Admissions Team)

Breakout 2: Sessions and Speakers (Afternoon)

A Life of Discipleship (Yes – in High School!): (PM ONLY) A discussion with members of the new Archdiocesan Youth Council about living a life of faith at school, forming faith-filled friendships, and going deeper into your relationship with Christ. (Members of Archdiocesan Youth Council)

Reconciliation: (PM ONLY) Reconciliation will be available from noon until 1:30 if you would like to go during lunch or the large group game. Alternatively, you can sign up to go during the 1:30 – 2:00 afternoon breakout session. (Please join the session in the main gym when finished)

Dignity of Life: : (PM ONLY) Offers tools and talking points for engaging in pro-life discussions respectfully with those who may disagree. (Morgan Nolan and Deacon Dan Powers)

Growing Up Between Cultures: During this session, Fatima shares her experience as a Mexican immigrant growing up in the United States and how her faith journey helped her find her own identity in Christ. She explores the beauty and challenge of growing up in between cultures, how she found comfort and a home away from home in her faith community and by trusting God's plan for her life. (Fatima Maldonado)

In The Beginning: This session explores our origins and the meaning of human sexuality through Genesis with the Theology of the Body. (Valene Ramseyer)

Living our Identity in the Beatitudes: a discussion and reflection on incorporating the Beatitudes within our identity. (Sheryl Blessing with Seed Students and Young Adult Leaders)

Participants of Divine Life: St. Athanasius wrote that "God became man, so that man might become like God". In this workshop, participants will explore how the Old Testament foreshadows, and Christ's Incarnation reveals, the dignity of the human person and God's ultimate purpose for each one of us. (Sam Carlson)

Prayerful Campus Walk: Experience a peaceful guided journey through the campus of Saint Martin, contemplating the joyful and sorrowful mysteries of life. (Michele Heitzmann)