

General Data Sheet Information

The General Data Sheet contains the current information on the school, the principal, the AHERA monitor, and general information on the buildings size, roof, walls, and heating system. This only needs to be copied and sent to Property & Construction if changes occur.